

Statewide Safety Belt Use Rates

For more information, contact Katie Womack, kwomack@tamu.edu.

Texas 2021 Safety Belt Use by City

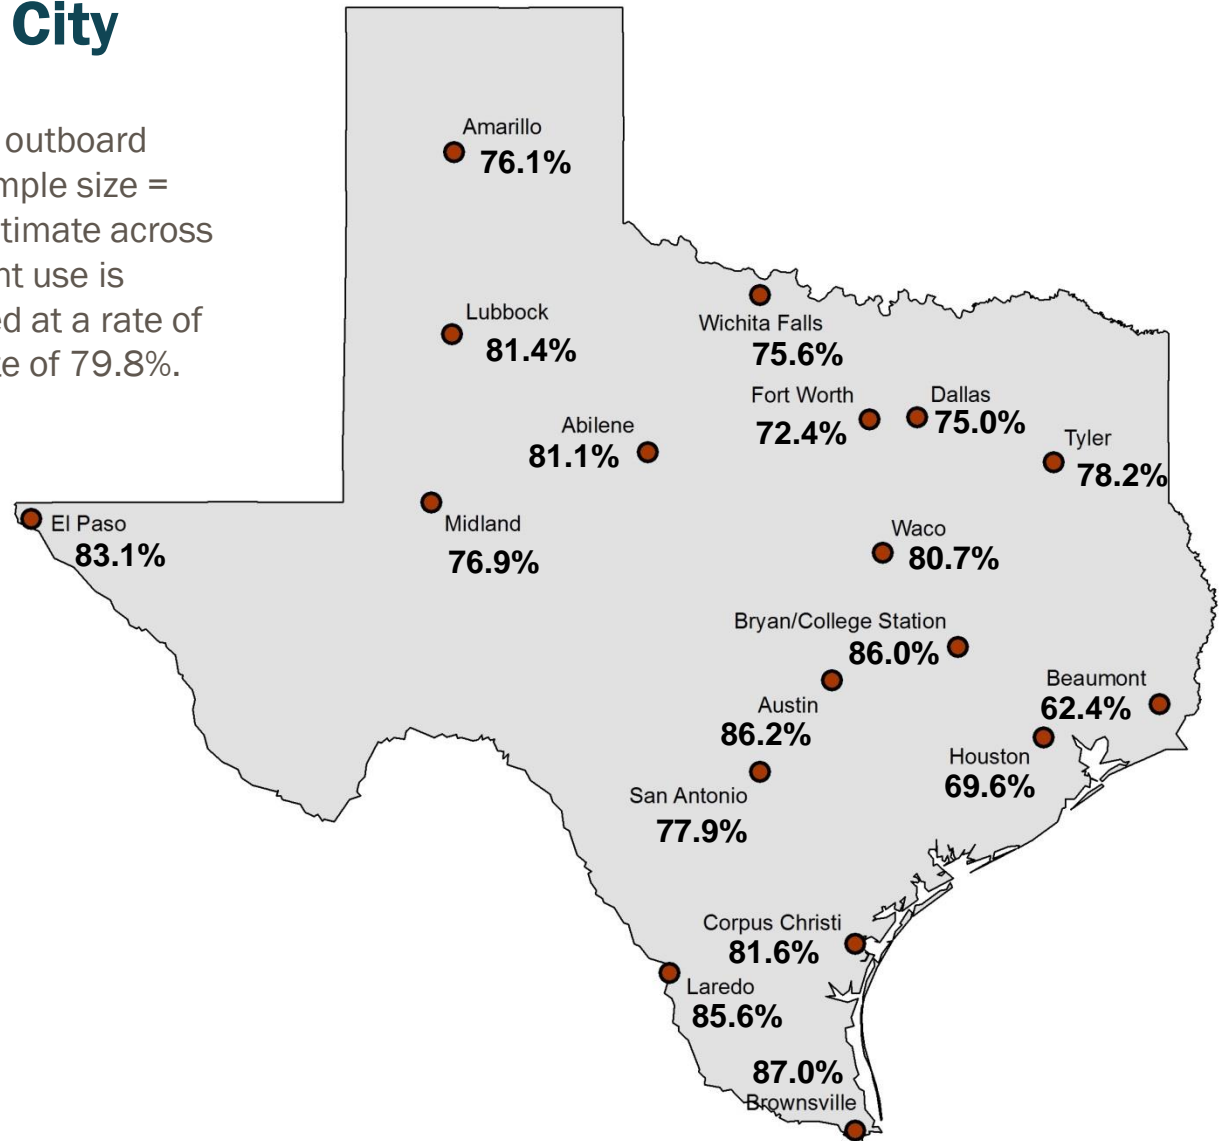

Use is for driver and front seat outboard passenger. Total sample size = 26,047 occupants in 21,600 vehicles (1,200 per city). Average estimate across cities of total restraint use is 88.3%. Drivers were seat belted at a rate of 88.2% and passengers at a rate of 88.8%.

For more information, contact Katie Womack, kwomack@tamu.edu.

Texas 2021 Nighttime Safety Belt Use by City

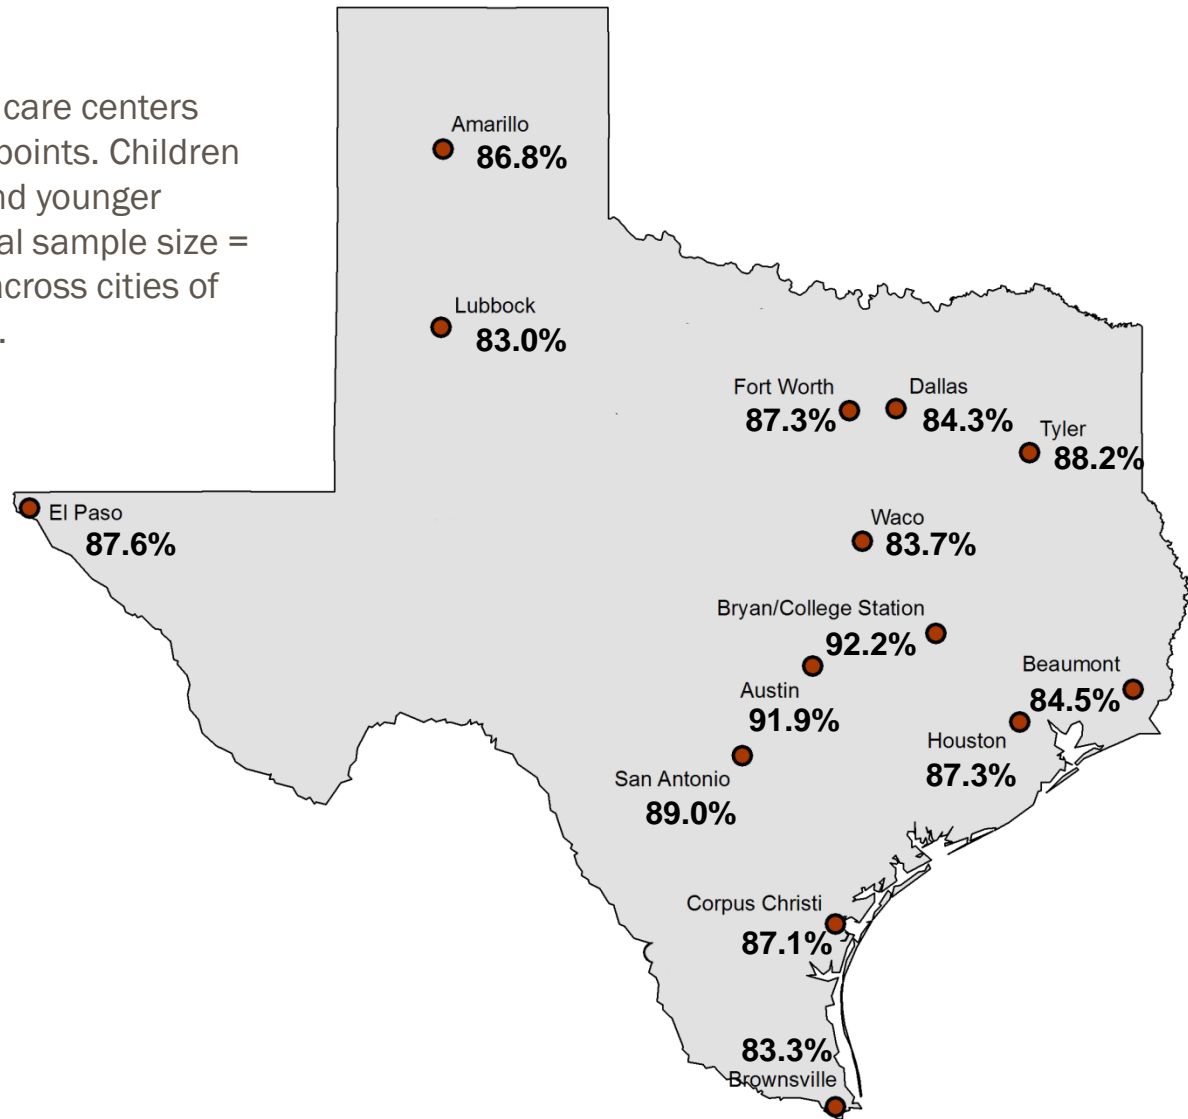

Use is for driver and front seat outboard passenger combined. Total sample size = 21,449 occupants. Average estimate across cities of total nighttime restraint use is 78.2%. Drivers were seat belted at a rate of 77.8% and passengers at a rate of 79.8%.

For more information, contact Katie Womack, kwomack@tamu.edu.

2021 Child Restraint Use in 14 Texas Cities

Surveys conducted at child care centers and shopping center entry points. Children estimated as 4 years old and younger included in the sample. Total sample size = 12,797. Average estimate across cities of total restraint use is 86.8%.

For more information, contact Katie Womack, kwomack@tamu.edu.